HONGKONG, THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1895.

THE PLAGUE AT MACAO.

In our issue of the 9th instant we sounded a warning note in reference to there being something radically wrong with the sanitary condition of the neighbouring port of Macao. On that occasion we said:-"Our Macao correspondent reports that the sanitary officers of the 'Holy City' are subjecting all passengers arriving from Canton to a very careful medical inspection with a view to preventing, if possible, the landing of persons suffering from infectious diseases. Can it be possible that the Black Plague has reappeared in Canton and hence these precautions at Macao?" The hint thus given to the authorities has, we are glad to hear, been received in the spirit it was uttered and Dr. J. A. Lawson, the Assistant Superintendent of the Government Civil Hospital, who did such splendid work in the plague depots here last year, was promptly despatched to Macao to make inquiries and report to the Government. He returned from the "Holy City" this morning and at once made a verbal report to the Executive. The gist of that report, which will presumably be published at an early date, has not yet been made known to us, but there can be no doubt that the Doctor did not find the state of affairs very serious. Indeed he would not have been called before the Executive Council in such a hurry. But however that may be, certain it is that the bubonic plague, which caused such havoc in this Colony last summer, is now epidemic in Macao and that the special sanitary precautions to which we referred on the 9th instant have been adopted at Macao owing to the existence of the disease at Canton, whence it has been imported at Macao by infected persons. In this connection it may be as well to add that inquiries made at the Portuguese Consulate on the 9th instant resulted in our representative being told that no information respecting the adoption of special sanitary precautions at Macao had been received by Mr. ROMANO, the Consul. This appears to indicate that the powers that be in the "Holy City" have done their utmost to prevent knowledge of the true state of affairs getting beyond the confines of their own territory; that instead of giving us friendly warning they have withheld important information which should, in the interests to our common humanity if for no other purpose, have been supplied to the local authorities at the earliest possible moment.

EXTRATERRITORIALITY IN JAPAN.

In a leading article of the 29th March last the Japan Daily Herald reproaches the Liberal Government in England with weakness and folly in seeking to propitiate Japan by consenting to the new Treaty, whereby the right of Japan to regulate her own trade and to exercise power and jurisdiction over all foreigners residing within her dominions was conceded by Great Britain. We cannot agree with our contemporary. It seems to us one of the wisest and most prudent of the many treaties of one kind or the other made by England lately and a simple act of justice to Japan. The only subject of regret in connection with it is, perhaps, that the concession had not been made earlier and with less effort. When in 1850 and again in 1856 the first treaties were negotiated with Japan it was just and right that the European Powers should reserve to themselves jurisdiction over their own subjects in Japan and should, by agreement, limit the amount of the duties to be at first imposed upon exports and imports. There is no Japanese statesman or publicist of any rank or standing who will not recognise and freely admit this, but long before these restrictions were in fact removed the Japanese Government and, to a considerable extent, the Japanese people, had shown themselves fully capable of exercising all the powers and rights of sovereignty in a manner far superior to that in which some western nations, of name and fame, are accustomed to deal with foreigners and foreign trade. The English Government did well in consenting to a revision of the treaties with Japan and would have done better if it had yielded earlier to the urgent requests of the Mikado and his Ministers.

TELEGRAMS.

THE TERMS OF PEACE.

The negotiations for peace are proceeding smoothly at Shimoda. It is understood, on good authority, that the conditions comprise the autonomy of Korea; the cession of Southern Manchuria, including Port Arthur; the cession of Formosa; the opening of Chinese ports and rivers to foreign commerce; the payment of a war indemnity of 400,000,000 yen; and the occupation of strategic points on the coast of China until such time as the indemnity is paid.

LI HUNG-CHANG AND THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

SHIMODA, April 9th.

A meeting was suddenly convened at 5.30 p.m. to-day, and the Viceroy, Li Hung-chang, who was conveyed in a palanquin, and was attended by Lord Li and Messrs. Li and Ma, proceeded to the conference chamber and there interviewed Count Ito and Viscount Matsuo.

The Viceroy Li will negotiate with the Japanese commissioners at 10 a.m. to-morrow.

Sergeant-General Sajo visited the distinguished patient this morning. The patient has completely gone down, and the fact alone presents an extraordinary appearance, with the exception of a small depression at the forehead.

The progress of the peace negotiations is proceeding very favourably, and it is believed that peace will soon be restored.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

As to-morrow is Good Friday and a Bank Holiday the next number of The Hongkong Telegraph will be issued on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at the usual hour.

Mass of interesting matter is 'crowded out' of this issue.

THE Spanish transport Manilla arrived here this afternoon from the Philippines.

THE Hon. A. J. Leach, Q.C., Police Judge of the Straits Settlements, left here for Singapore by the P. & O. liner Pekin this forenoon.

INSPECTOR George Hennessy was among the passengers who left for home by the Pekin this morning. The popular Inspector will be absent from the colony about six months.

A REGULAR meeting of St. John's Lodge, No. 618, S.C., will be held in the Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

COLLARD & COLLARD PIANOS at W. Robinson & Co.

FIRE broke out just after twelve to-day at No. 144, Queen's Road West, near the Kowloon Theatre, in a rattan shop. The Fire Brigade, under the superintendence of Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, was promptly on the scene, but despite the efforts of the firemen, the fire was not under control till the first and second floors were completely gutted. The premises were insured.

It was rumoured in shopping circles this afternoon that the Japanese, who seized the British steamer Yokohama two days ago near Taku and took her to Port Arthur, owing to contraband of war being found on board, have released their prize owing to the owners having proved that the contraband goods were shipped surreptitiously. We hope the report is founded on fact.

At a meeting of stevedores held last night it was proposed to "call out" the cargo-coolies as a protest against the regulation which makes it necessary for Head Coolies to find security for their good behaviour. It was asserted that every coolie would have to find security, but as that is a deliberate falsehood and incredible the strike, about which Dame Rumour was very busy this morning, appears to be "dead off" for the present at all events.

WHAT seems to be a valuable work, judging from the notices in home papers, has just been published by Fisher Unwin. It is a Cyclopaedia of Names, edited by B. E. Smith, A.M., and runs to 1085 pp. It comprises not only names in biography and geography, but also names of places and things, characters and objects in fiction, stars and constellations, notable buildings and archaeological monuments, works of art, institutions (academies, universities, legislative bodies, orders, clubs, etc.), historical events (wars, battles, treaties, conventions, etc.) noted events and squares, books, plays, operas, celebrated games, vessels (warships, yachts, etc.) and horses. Pseudonyms, also, which have literary importance, are included. The only condition of inclusion has been that the name should be one about which information would be likely to be sought. It will be seen that the work covers much untraded ground, and if the execution be at all comparable to the promise, this is really a book that supplies a want.

At this critical juncture the utterances of the leading Russian newspapers are worthy of note owing to the fact of the Russian press being completely under the thumb of the Government of the Czar and before therefore, to put it mildly, slightly tainted with official inspiration. Here, then, are what may be fairly regarded as proverbial strains which show the direction in which the Muscovite current is likely to run in the Far East for some time to come. The Moscow Gazette, in discussing the probable terms of peace, says:-"It is impossible to permit the smallest release of Chinese soil by Japan. Korea must be evacuated and further encroachment prevented. If Japan has anything of that nature in view, it is time for her to pause and consider, as in such a case the neutrality of Russia cannot be counted upon, despite her love of peace," while the Grasshopper the very same day held out a threat to Japan thusly:-"If Japan should insist on any partition of China or on acquiring Korea, she would assuredly have to reckon with Russia as an armed antagonist." Comment on these threats would be superfluous just now; all that can be done is to wait and see what Russia will have to say in folding about the terms of peace which China concludes with the representatives of the Mikado.

HIS Excellency the Governor will present the Queen's Colours to the Hongkong Regiment on Saturday.

THE Prime Minister has conferred upon Mr. William Watson a Civil List pension of £100 a year. Many critics of literature consider that Mr. Watson is the best hope of the present generation to produce a true poet.

New Comic Song and Dance Albums at W. Robinson & Co.

THE Moscow Gazette publishes the following announcement:-"Disturbances have lately been of frequent occurrence in the Semiretchenka territory, on the frontier between Russian Turkistan and China. An special commissioners will be appointed on May 1st in the districts of Bakhti, Naryn-Kolchayev, and Athasha, with full powers to settle border disputes."

THE following terrible wolf story was received from Russia by the London Chronicle:-A peasant with his wife and child were driving in a sledge drawn by one horse from the Novosibirsk market to Bobrovsk. Soon there met the travellers a pack of hungry wolves. The brave horse still galloped forward; whilst the peasant, seeing that escape was impossible, proposed to throw the child to the wolves, but the mother would not consent. Hereupon a short struggle took place in the sledge, which ended in both wife and child being thrown out to the ravens on both sides of the road. At this juncture a most unforeseen circumstance occurred. The wolves, giving all their attention to the horse, did not even notice the mother and child left to their fate on the roadside. These eventually reached a neighbouring village in safety, while the cowardly and unnatural peasant fell a victim to his hungry pursuers.

NEW piano rebuilding machinery, received by W. Robinson & Co.

THE Australian effort to promote the exportation of butter to Great Britain, by giving a bounty to producers, has provoked a good deal of adverse comment in the "old country." The London Trade Journal, discussing the subject, says that the Germans, on sugar injures the foreigner's exports that we in this country are buying sugar below the cost of production. It remarks in one place, and in another it denies its argument by asserting that "the evil of state-supported industries on one side competing with heavily taxed consumers on the other side of the world threatens to become so serious that Governments must interfere to prevent the inevitable collapse." It does not require any great penetrative powers to divine that British hostility to the bounty system is not inspired by a tender consideration for the States that are paying bounties, but is really prompted by a recognition of the fact that the artificial stimulus given to industries by rival states invariably results in raising up competitors whose competition is injurious to British industries.

If the Royal Navy has not hitherto had a monthly journal devoted to its interest, On Watch makes a good beginning towards supplying such a want. It is edited by Mr. Herbert Russell, son of Mr. W. Clark Russell, the well-known writer of sea novels. Commander the Hon. H. N. Shore, R.N., is well fitted by experience to write on the Coastguard service, and he has much of interest to tell concerning its usefulness. "On Watch" seen on the "Ice" is a short and thrilling story by Clark Russell. "Twisters" is a column of amusing anecdotes of seafaring life. Rear-Admiral Seymour is the subject of the first of a series of illustrated biographies. Mr. William Twiss, of the Adelphi Theatre, under "The Naval Drama," testifies to the popularity with British audiences of plays founded upon nautical incidents. "Blige Waters" is the general description for several court-martial cases. There is a list of promotions and appointments since the 1st January last, together with a chart showing the present positions of Her Majesty's ships in commission. The magazine has other noteworthy features, and is got up in a superior style for so cheap a serial. Messrs. Sampson Low, Marston & Co. are the publishers.

ANOTHER instance of the progressive movement among women, written in the New Zealand correspondence of the Melbourne Age, is the publication of a newspaper devoted specially, though not exclusively, to their interests. This newspaper, which has Daybreak for its title, made its first appearance in Wellington, N.Z., a few weeks ago. It is edited and carried on by women in its literary and clerical departments, and if it is a success the idea is to produce it exclusively by women's labor in course of time. In its initial number the editor, Mrs. J. E. Smith, in an editorial, Daybreak announces that its principal aim will be to ventilate the evils and grievances that exist in our midst, and to let not only the men in Wellington, but all New Zealand, know that they (the women) do not intend to overstep the power they have received in having the franchise granted to them by forgetting the sex, and appearing in places where they should not only be the laughing-stock of the ill-natured, but (which is far worse) merit the contempt of the wise and true. Daybreak intends to advocate a steady and continued increase of the land tax, accompanied by a corresponding decrease of customs duties. The betterment principle, pensions for the old and infirm, and finding work for all who are able and willing to do it, but cannot get the opportunity. State ownership of all monopolies, such as the drainage, railways, coal mines, gas, water, tramways, etc., will be upheld by this latest and newest addition to the newspaper literature of New Zealand, and it will be a matter of great interest to watch Daybreak's career from the standpoint either of literary and financial success or failure.

It seems says the L. & C. Express, that a considerable change may again take place in the petroleum trade of the East and the Far East. Owing to the splendid energy and ability of the American Standard Oil Company, they have developed such a trade in Europe that they have almost a difficulty in supplying that trade alone. Consequently, the keen rivalry that is anticipated between American and Russian oil in the East is not likely to be prolonged, and as a result, it is possible the price of oil may somewhat. That the low prices of late, the consumption all round the East has enormously increased, so much, indeed, that in spite of the "tankers" a spur has again taken place in case oil from Batoum, which it seemed not long ago was likely to be extinguished. In this connection our contemporary notes that Messrs. H. Samuel and Co., of London and Japan, the originators of the tank oil trade from Batoum to the East, have ordered four new tankers, each to carry 7,000 tons of oil built, as to the second defendant. Kelly, whom witnesses saw on the poop, but he could not swear that he was amongst them. Kelly rushed past the others with a drawn knife, when witnesses stepped back, and was stabbed on the head (marked above). After he was stabbed witness fired a shot at Kelly, who retaliated, and made another thrust at him, when witness fired a second time and killed him. After this the others were crowding on the poop, and the defendants, with the exception of Brown, were coming up the poop, but he may have been there.
